

FREE MONEY!

The Merritt Forest Week Committee is pleased to announce the 2013 offering of Mike Morrison Memorial Bursary.

This bursary is for $1000.

Students from Merritt Forest Industry families returning to a multi-year post secondary school program are eligible to apply.

As this is real life there is really no free money so please submit the following to be considered for the bursary.

1. 500 word essay on the topic "The impacts of large forest fires on small communities and the importance of fire interface risk/planning/preparedness in relation to the Nicola Valley". The winning essay will be published in the Merritt Herald during National Forest Week.
2. Details of the program you are returning to
3. A description of how your family is involved with the forest industry
4. An outline of your community involvement and volunteer history

Deadline for submission is May 16, 2013.

Prior to award of the bursary, proof of enrolment must be produced.

Applications are to be submitted electronically to Andrea.Inwards@gov.bc.ca, questions can also be directed to this address.
